

Jane Innis Caldwell

Director of Grants and Special Programs
Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board

Jane has worked at the Coordinating Board for more than 36 years, the vast majority of the time in the Grants and Special Programs office. The programs administered through her office provide more than $450 million per year in financial assistance to students attending nonprofit institutions in Texas.

She also acts as the agency's contact for issues dealing with residency for higher education purposes and in the interpretation of statutes authorizing tuition and fee exemptions and waivers.

Jane has a master's degree in business administration and a bachelor's degree in Russian from The University of Texas at Austin.
